

Hononegah Woman's Club

March 14, 2023

Dear Students and Parents,

Hononegah Woman's Club (HWC), a social and philanthropic organization based in Rockton, is once again offering financial support in the form of "Camperships" to students who would like to attend academic or service-based camps this summer. Eligible students are those who are currently enrolled in sixth (6th) through eleventh (11th) grades and who live within the boundaries of Hononegah High School. Applications will be accepted for students attending appropriate camps in the areas of Speech, Leadership, Fine Arts, Vocal/Instrumental Music, 4-H, Scouts or any other academic, vocational, or service camps. Sports camps, including cheerleading, are not eligible.

The HWC Campership Committee must receive completed applications by midnight on Monday, April 17, 2023. Please send the signed, completed application to:

HWC Campership Committee
c/o Marci Taets
14667 Loris Place
South Beloit, IL 61080

Campership awards are worth a minimum of $50.00 each. Students receiving the Campership awards will be asked to share their camp experience with the Hononegah Woman's Club at a meeting in September. Students and their guests will be treated to refreshments following the Campership presentations.

Please contact Marci Taets at (815) 242-0090 or mktaets@charter.net if you have any questions about Camperships.

Sincerely,

Marci Taets, Chair
HWC Campership Committee
