

Photo Scarecrow Scavenger Hunt

Hey families, become the stalk-arazzi in the neighborhood cruise, looking for all kinds of scarecrow displays. It's fun, free, and activity your family can do together. Well, the American Legion Auxiliary 332 is hosting a children and youth fun event. We need your help in 2 ways. First, we need anyone in the state line communities who would like to put a scarecrow up. It can be single it could be a big display scene. They can be funny, scary, but tasteful however you wish. We are looking at Rockton, Roscoe, South Beloit, Prairie Hill, Shirland and Machesney. Best part you can do both. This is where you get to go on the scavenger hunt.

Dates 10/16- 10/28 when you send me you email to : childrenandyouth332@gmail.com please include your last name and if you have children how many.

Rules:

1. You need to collect pictures at 10 different spots. The passenger can take a picture or do a family selfie with the scarecrow.

2. Each picture must include the address that you took the picture from.
3. At the end rate the top 3 of your 10 that were your favorites (1st, 2nd, and 3rd)
4. Look for yards, churches, or businesses.
5. Last day to submit October 28th
Have fun on your search!!!!
